

NUNN HAYWARD LLP INCORPORATES SUMMERS MORGAN STRENGTHENING EXPERTISE & SERVICES

Nunn Hayward, a long-established chartered accountancy and business advisory firm, has announced a merger with Summers Morgan, creating a combined practice with enhanced expertise, broader capacity and a strengthened platform for future growth.

The merger brings together two firms with shared values, complementary skill sets and a common focus on delivering high-quality, partner-led advice to owner-managed/corporate businesses, individuals and professional clients.

Clients of both firms will continue to receive the same level of service from their existing contacts, with the added benefit of access to a wider pool of specialist knowledge and resources. The combined firm will offer expanded capabilities across core accountancy, tax compliance and advisory services, alongside strengthened succession planning and business support.

Importantly, Nunn Hayward are an independent firm, retaining its autonomy and decision-making. This independence ensures the firm can continue to act solely in the best interests of its clients, providing impartial advice without external pressures or obligations that can arise from larger corporate structures. Clients can be confident that the firm's recommendations remain fully objective and aligned with their goals.

Simon Dodd, Partner at Nunn Hayward said:

"This merger is a natural step forward for Nunn Hayward. Summers Morgan shares our commitment to personal service, technical excellence and long-term client relationships. By coming together, we are better placed to support our clients as their needs evolve, while maintaining our independence – something our clients value highly."

Nicholas Corden, Partner at Summers Morgan added:

"Joining Nunn Hayward provides our clients and team with greater depth, opportunity and continuity. We are excited about the future and the enhanced service we can now offer as part of a larger, like-minded firm."

The merger also creates new opportunities for staff development and progression, reinforcing the firm's commitment to investing in its people and attracting future talent.

The combined firm will operate under the Nunn Hayward name, with the Summers Morgan team fully integrated into the practice.
